A bright yellow moon with drifting black clouds, falling golden leaves, and the screams of witches and goblins provide the setting for the 1965 home-coming. Officially, home-coming opens today with the assembly the third hour to introduce the five enchanting queen candidates: Sharon Campbell, Barbara Koos, Bonita Short, Karen Hollingsworth, and Sharon Scott.

To the rousing chants of MSCers, the cheerleaders will present the football players with the MSC good luck charms for a bit of magic in tomorrow night's game. A touch of witchcraft is added to the assembly as Carl Fisher sings to the queen candidates.

A ghoulish dance to boost the energy of the Lions' fans will be featured this afternoon in the Student Union. And tonight there will be more black magic made at the pep rally held at Landrith Park with the cheerleaders and other students practicing the

Lisa Sergio To Talk Today On World Affairs

Miss Lisa Sergio, specialist on world affairs, will talk second hour today on "The How and Why of Dictatorships" and on "Education for Leadership," fifth hour.

Miss Sergio has traveled the world over and is well acquainted with countries behind the Iron Curtain. She recently returned from a tour of Europe, where she gathered first-hand information on political, economic, and international affairs. She has also just finished a book entitled "Prayers of Women," and is working on two more books.

A woman of many talents, Miss Sergio, translated a play from French into Italian and saw it produced when she was only 15.

screams and yells to haunt the Greyhounds at tomorrow's game.

Another enchanting day begins tomorrow as the goblins and ghosts go on display in the home-coming parade beginning at 2:30 p.m. The parade features marching bands from the area, weird and bewitching floats, and the fascinating queen candidates in their open "carriages."

Tomorrow night, sorcerers will dream up secret potions as the two football coaches give vital last minute information to each of their teams. Lions give a roar as the Greyhounds appear on the gridiron at 7:30 p.m. and the all-important battle gets underway.

Suspense hangs in the air until half-time approaches and the queen candidates will arrive, bedecked for the crowning of the 1965 Home-Coming Queen. The Stage Band will provide the magical music for her entry with Mike Reeder singing "All the Things You Are."

Merlin could not do a better job of sorcery for the Home-coming Dance which climaxes the magical weekend. The Connor Roof Garden provides the marvel background as the mystical hour of midnight approaches to the witching strains of Dave and the Boys Next Door.

Dick Humphrey, president of the Alumni, will give a welcoming address at the game during half-time. A reception booth will be set up at the game for all alumni to register and receive their alumni tags. Also a section will be roped off for all alumni attending the game. The Association is co-sponsoring a float with Circle K for the parade.

MSC Employs Fred Cinotto As Co-ordinator

Fred Cinotto, former dean of Independence Kansas Community College, has been employed as a full-time staff member and will begin his duties on November 1. He will work with the curriculum committee as a co-ordinator towards the development of third and fourth year courses for the new four-year college.

After receiving his B.S. and M.A. degrees from Kansas State College, he did graduate work at Florida State University, Michigan State University, Wayne State University, and the University of Kansas.

He has served as examiner-consultant with the North Central Association and as past president of the North Central Council of Junior Colleges. He was a member of the Advisory Council for the Midwest Leadership Training Program and the Advisory Commission for the State of Kansas. He also served as president of the Kansas Junior College Association and as a member of the state testing program for talented students.

Cinotto has served as district governor of Lions International, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Independence Chamber of Commerce, and as chairman of the local United Fund.

He is married and has three children.

Band, Choir Open Season November 16

Richard Boyington will be featured in "Concertino for Trumpet and Band," by Frank Erickson, during the first band and choir concert of the year, Tuesday night, November 16, in the auditorium. The band will also feature the "JFK Suite" by Doug Hartzell, depicting Mr. Kennedy's life at Harvard and Washington, and the funeral march "Arlington." "Profiles in Courage" by Nelson Riddle will be added to complete the theme.

Ticket information may be obtained from Russell Benzamin.

KC Philharmonic To Play Here

The Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra will give a concert at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, November 9, in the Senior High School auditorium. Tickets for the evening performance are $1.50 and may be purchased in advance in the Finance Office of the College, or at the door.

The orchestra, conducted by Hans Schweiger, will present "Prelude to Die Meistersinger" by Richard Wagner, "Adagio for Strings" by Samuel Barber, and "Piano Concerto in B Major" by Mozart.

The program will feature Jose Echaniz, guest pianist, who will play "Piano Concerto No. 2 in A Major" by Franz Liszt, and "Capriccio Espagnole" by Nicolai Rimsky-Korsakoff.

Echaniz successfully combines teaching with his extensive concert activities throughout this country, Latin America, and Europe. He now makes his home in the United States, but was born and educated in Cuba.

The orchestra will also play Tuesday afternoon for grade school children.

Miss Edra Cox, Business Teacher, Dies at Home

Miss Edra Cox, commerce instructor at MSC, was found dead at her apartment, 315 West Ninth, October 26. Miss Cox died of carbon monoxide poisoning, according to Jasper County Coroner Wendell Fuhr. The Joplin Fire Department inspectors found that the flue of a gas stove was clogged, apparently causing the exhaust fumes to back up into her apartment.

This was Miss Cox's first year with MSC. She previously had made her home in Aurora where she taught for 17 years. Before 1948, she had taught in Waterloo, Illinois, and Galena, Missouri.

After graduating from Ozark High School, she received a Bachelor of Science in Education degree from SMS and earned a Master of Arts in Business from George Peabody College.

She was a member of the National Education Association, Missouri State Teachers Association, and Delta Pi Epsilon, a national honorary business fraternity.

Services were held yesterday at Spokane, Missouri, with burial there. She is survived by two brothers and a sister.

PTK's Big Brothers Launch Program

Phi Theta Kappa members presented their "Big Brother-Sister" program October 18. They held advisory meetings with freshmen to discuss study habits and time budgeting. They also explained college hours, honor points, and the procedure for dropping a class.

Each freshman was assigned a "Big Brother" or a "Big Sister."

Junkins Gets Grant To Buy Equipment For Use in Research

Merrell Junkins, psychology teacher at the College, has been awarded a grant of $2,000 from the National Science Foundation to support his research in the field of "Stimulus Generalization."

The money will be used to purchase equipment for the study, with which students will assist. He began his study of the subject last summer at Florida State University.

"The important thing for Missouri Southern College is that we now have a little money for equipment with which to begin an experimental program," Junkins said.

Bids for Bonds For Buildings To Start Soon

Advertising for bids on the 2.5 million dollars in building bonds for the new MSC campus will open in the near future. Officials will open the sealed bids January 10, according to Dr. Leon Billingsly, president of the College.

It is expected that plans and specifications for a new library will be completed by November 1. If the Board of Trustees approves the plans, they will be submitted to the Fort Worth headquarters of the Federal Housing Administration for acceptance.

Tentative ground-breaking plans are scheduled for November 19. Plans call for the construction of the new library to begin following FHA approval.

Tanner, Linscott, and Associates are the designers of the proposed buildings.

Be Aware

The Lions want you! What for? To support the only remaining home game tomorrow night. Right now various organizations are working to make this home-coming one of the best and most spirited events yet.

One of the most enthusiastic groups of supporters we have behind our "a-go-go" team is the cheerleaders who are working on specialties for the home-coming assembly.

Keeping up with the high-spirited cheerleaders is the Student Senate, who is in charge of the annual assembly, parade, and dance. Furthermore, every organization that enters a float in the home-coming parade on Saturday afternoon before the big game is outwardly declaring support for our Lions.

Be aware that all these activities climax tomorrow. Support our undefeated Lions. —P.E.

Students May Enter KC Poetry Contests

Interested students may now submit poems to the 1966 Kansas City Poetry contests. Entries in the annual contests must be postmarked before February 15, 1966.

Single poems or a book-length manuscript may be submitted. A total of $1,600 will be awarded, with prizes ranging from 25 to 500 dollars.

For further details check the third floor bulletin board.

Miss Sergio lectured at an assembly yesterday on "The American Position in Western Europe."

MSC Home-Coming Follows Long Tradition

This year's home-coming is unique. Joplin Junior College graduates will be there, and also Jasper County Junior College graduates, but no MSC graduates. Since this is the first year for MSC, next year will really be the first MSC home-coming.

The first Joplin Junior College home-coming was in 1940. An enthusiastic parade and big dance highlighted the activities then, and have ever since. The Lions won the first home-coming game 13-0 over Ft. Scott.

The first home-coming queen was Victoria Evans, and in 1941, Patty Lacey was the second. Peggy Elliot was crowned as the third home-coming queen in 1942. Because of World War II, most of the boys were overseas and home-coming was disbanded from 1943 to 1946. The first post-war queen was Mary Alice Dabbs, who was crowned in 1947.

The queens since then, with married names where known, were Kathleen Cearnal (Mrs. King Bridges), 1948; Kathryn Tipping (Mrs. Henry J. Davis), 1949; Norma Long, 1950; Mary Lou Gullette (Mrs. Robert Rutledge), 1951; Joan Holman, 1952; Diane Martin (Mrs. Jim Morrissey), 1953; Janice Hargis (Mrs. Bob Barry), 1954; Madalyn Gustafson, 1955; Wanda Gibb, 1956; Donna Finley (Mrs. David Garrison), 1957; Pam Spenny, 1958; Barbara Arehart, (Mrs. Buddy Ball), 1959; Sally Burress (Mrs. Ron Twenter), 1960; Margee Webb, 1961; Cheryl Martin, 1962; Kay Baker, 1963; and Judy Thompson, 1964.

Judy Thompson was the one and only home-coming queen for Jasper County Junior College.

'Student Government Necessary,' Says Senate President Phil Wiland

"Student government is essential for three reasons. It teaches the people involved how to accept and carry out their responsibilities; it handles the activities which directly affect the student body; and it acquaints the student with the basic functions of government."

These were the feelings expressed by Phil Wiland when asked what place he felt that student government played in a college. Phil, who follows a pre-law curriculum, serves as president of the Student Senate this year.

Commenting upon student government, Phil declared: "A student government should be carried out for the best interest of the student body, remembering the size and objectives of various organizations."

The young chief executive went on to add that the Senate "acts as a leading group but without participation of the student body cannot function effectively because it is organized for students and student organizations, much like a state government."

"I wanted to make an attempt to see that there are good crowds at home basketball games," he remarked in explaining his reasons for seeking the presidency. Also, he wants "to gain the experience of being involved with leadership."

In answering an inquiry concerning the effect his participation in student government will have on him when he leaves college, Phil concluded that he is thinking of entering politics, and that "working with people gives a better understanding of people."

JOTS

Miss Margaret Mitchell plans to attend the annual Missouri Association of Collegiate Administrators and Registrar Officials meeting in Columbia October 31 through November 2.

Dr. Dale Bellerose from the University of Missouri at Kansas City interviewed prospective transfer students here October 25.

Eighteen members of the Math Club and their guests took a field trip to Pittsburg on October 5 to view KSC's computer. They also attended a lecture on the stars, according to Miss Martha McCormick, sponsor.

Eight business students and Miss Dorothy Stone, instructor, attended the annual "Accounting Outlook Conference" held at Kansas State College yesterday in Pittsburg. The purpose of the program was to provide a better understanding of the existing outlook and job opportunities in the different facets of accounting. Students who made the trip are Steve Anderson, Betty Chestnutt, LeRoy Cockrell, Bob Ford, Lee Johnson, Bruce Morlan, John Reeves, and Ron Skelton.

Several faculty members represented MSC at "College Day and College Night" this week at Springfield, Neosho, Carthage, Monett, and Branson high schools.

Tommy Holman and David Bingman attended the Southwest Teachers Association October 14, in Springfield as delegates of the college.

The CCUN held a rummage sale October 23 to help raise money for their trip to St. Louis in March for the Midwest Model United Nations.

Nancy Preston, a sophomore, and Steve Smith were married October 24.

Cheryl Dines, Sharon N. Scott, Patti Marshall, and Pam Eliason, editors of The Chart, attended the fall workshop of the Missouri College Newspaper Association in Columbia October 22. Dr. Ervin Dunham accompanied them.

A Nation to Back

The right of freedom of speech is a precious right and not one to be used unfairly nor illegitimately. Across our nation, college students parade themselves and their painted signs, singing chants and yelling thoughtless words against the United States' involvement in Viet Nam. From the beginning of our history, America has stood for the rights of all mankind, defending these rights with our lives if necessary.

Today, a nation is being overrun by a dangerous aggressor, not only dangerous to the Vietnamese, but to us also. We are not a nation of weaklings to pacify nor to be pacified while an overbearing nation walks across the world. He may walk on us before his appetite is filled.

American soldiers arise in the morning facing a day of battle and perhaps death in order that these people have the opportunity to live in peace. We students arise facing a day of peaceful study, work, and the security of our own homes. A nation must have support from all the people, especially the youth. It is up to us to work toward a more peaceful world.

Fighting is not the easiest nor the best solution for this peace, but the world comprehends its meaning. If our men are risking their lives every day so that the blessings of liberty may be ours, then the least we can do is to support them here at home. And, be ready and willing to take their place if the need arises not only for our own sakes, but for the future of our children and our nation. —C.D.

First Ceramics Students Explore 'Clay World'

"This class is an introduction to the making of mudpies," remarked a student in Dale Bates' Ceramics I class. Contrary to this student's belief, the new art course is designed to expose the various techniques of ceramic construction. The class meets three times weekly in the coach house at Spiva Art Center for three hours credit.

The first half of the course is concerned with introduction and exposure to the basic ceramic materials, the instructor explained. The second half deals primarily with the study of mixing, preparation, and the application of glazes. In short, Ceramics I gives the student a working knowledge of important phases of the three-dimensional art of ceramics and stoneware.

The student is expected to produce the individual, original work which he later treats and glazes with paints, with the end result of 12 finished products in stoneware.

In the future, MSC plans to expand the ceramics course into a complete program of beginning, intermediate, and advanced classes with the cooperation of the Spiva Art Center.

Elaine Hubbard and Joe Burns observe closely as Instructor Bates shows them the art of making ceramics out of mud while Gary Flenner does a little experimenting on his own.

Putting final touches on scenery for "The Heiress" are Beverly Kluthe, Julie Stehm, Ron Ballard, Bob Newman, and Tim Robinson.

Production Crew Prepares For 'Heiress' Opening Wednesday

A large production staff is required for the presentation of "The Heiress," which opens Wednesday night for a four-night run.

Milton Brietzke, director, said that much research has been done "to find the architectural and decor requirements for the set. Costumes and makeup must meet the requirements of the period."

Lighting effects: Beverly Kluthe and Doug Brooks, co-chairmen; Linda Hakes, Leslie Underwood, Dennis Hudson, Phil Doran, and Tim Elliott.

Special art work: Charles Moore and Carol Blankenship.

Costume department: Dorothy Rutherford, chairman; Sandra McCulley, Janet Counts, Linda

Larson, Jane Long, Kay Floyd, Nancy Lowery, Mary Burns, Judy Patterson, Sharon Ritzman, and Karol Tate.

Makeup Department: Karol Salzer and Dennis Sanders, co-chairmen; Sandy Powers, Nancy Brisbin, Mike Burnes, Bil Molloy, and Louise Stemmons.

Props: Dana Stone and Sherri Campbell, co-chairmen; Jerry Shipman, Patty Longstreet, Julie Andrey, Marilyn Morton, Tim Robinson, and Jessica Edwards.

Sound effects: Ron Ballard, Deenie Roby, and Mike Anderson.

Business and Publication: Deenie Roby and Martin Weber, co-chairmen; John Brown, Phil Snoddy, Jackie Casperson, John Starchman, Phil Wiland, Ann Nelson, and Kathy Watkins.

Other production staff members are Kathy Watkins, assistant director; Bill Molloy, stage manager; Tim Elliott, assistant stage manager; Bil Molloy, program cover designer; Tom Davenport, program continuity; Julie Stehm and Ray Mathis, box office; Allan Ensor and John Harvey, house managers; Patti Blake, Colleen McKeel, and Ron Garrett, concessions; and Susie Elkins, prompter.

Usherettes are Kay Williams, Helen Jones, Pat Randall, Janice Pack, Marilyn Morton, Beverly Berry, Carolyn Barker, and Angela Brown.

Hearnes Appoints M.S.S.C. Regents

Governor Warren E. Hearnes announced appointment October 12 of a five-member board of regents for Missouri Southern College. The new board will administer all four years of college instruction.

Those appointed were Thomas Taylor of Carthage, Lauren Reynolds of Joplin, Fred Hughes of Joplin, Norval Matthews of Webb City, and Mills Anderson of Carthage. All except Anderson are members of the county college Board of Trustees.

Hughes, president of the county college Board of Trustees, was appointed to a five-year term, Taylor to a four-year term, Reynolds to a three-year term, Matthews to a two-year term, and Anderson to a one-year term. Anderson serves as treasurer of the Board of Trustees.

At an organizational meeting of the new board October 14, Fred Hughes was elected to serve as president, with Thomas Taylor to serve as vice-president. Gene Taylor of Sarcosie was chosen as treasurer of the board, and Elvin Ummel of Jasper was elected secretary. Both Taylor and Ummel are members of the county Board of Trustees.

The newly appointed trustees went to Jefferson City for Senate approval.

Persons appointed by a governor hold the office granted them until the Senate acts on the appointments and then continue to serve if they get the Senate's approval.

Missouri Southern College will go into operation in 1967, or at whatever time the Board of Curators of the University of Missouri approves the physical facilities on the new campus, located at the junction of Newman and Duquesne Roads.

College YW Begins Study of Religions

The College YWCA began its study of religions, October 12, with Dr. Ward Conklin, minister of the First Presbyterian Church in Joplin, as speaker. Dr. Conklin gave the background and growth of the Presbyterian Church, emphasizing the four men who were responsible for the beginning of Presbyterianism: John Calvin, John Knox, Francis Mackenzie, and John Witherspoon. Dr. Conklin expressed strong feeling against competition among religions.

"Before I take roll, are there any new members?"

Doug East, president, Dean C. O. Robinson, and President Leon Billingsly spoke briefly.

Mental Clinic To Be Built On New Campus

A new Joplin clinic for the mentally retarded will be located on the grounds of the new Missouri Southern College, according to John D. Paulus, director of planning and construction, and Dr. George A. Ulett, director of mental diseases.

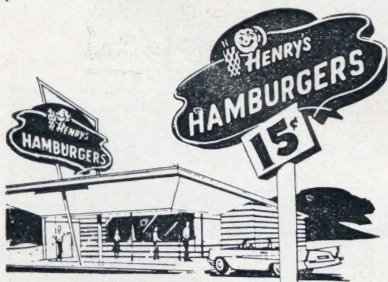

The Joplin Area Parents and Friends Association for Mentally Retarded Children had proposed that a course of study for educating teachers for the mentally retarded be included in the four-year state college.

The clinic is part of a nine-clinic system in the state which is expected to start operating by July 1, 1966. It will consist of small psychological and psychiatric units with three main services: out-patient, in-patient, and a day care center.

The College had offered 10 acres of land on the new campus for the state clinic which will serve 12 counties in southwest Missouri.

Paulus and Ulett discussed initial plans Tuesday for the location of the $400,000 clinic with representatives from the City of Joplin.

Cadets Forfeit; Lions Do Battle In Intra-squad Tilt

Due to a conflict of schedules, Wentworth Military Academy was forced to forfeit to Missouri Southern College Lions their seventh victory this season.

Wentworth had the game scheduled for Thursday, October 21, and the team and fans were at the stadium, ready for the game. MSC's contract, however, called for the game to be played on the twenty-second. Therefore, they did not show. Since no new date could be agreed upon, Wentworth officials agreed to forfeit the game.

This boosted the Lions to 4-0 in Interstate Conference play and set the stage for fifth-ranked Missouri Southern's homecoming game with third-ranked Fort Scott Community College on October 30.

The Lions took advantage of this forfeit to play an intra-squad contest at Junge Stadium in preparation for the homecoming game.

The White team, consisting of members of the first team, posted a 25-7 win over the Greens, who used Fort Scott offensive and defensive formations.

Quarterback Dave Wade's fumble resulted in the first White touchdown. Skip Drouin picked up the loose ball and raced 42 yards for the score.

A pass interception by Jim Dye and Joe Witherspoon's 34-yard gallop gave the Whites six more points.

The White team scored two more times in the fourth quarter, one as a result of a fumble and the other on a pass interception.

The Green's lone score came in the second period when Jim Fountain intercepted a pass and returned to his own 46. Wade carried the ball in from the 16.

Lions Amass Early Point Bulge to Edge O.M.A.

Unbeaten Missouri Southern won a hard-fought game against nationally-ranked Oklahoma Military Academy, 21-20, October 7, at Junge Stadium.

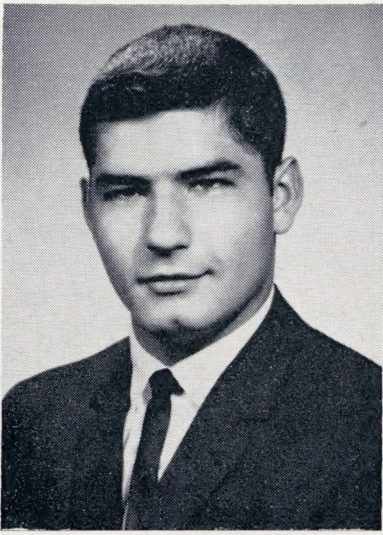

Joplin's Donald Bean stunned the Cadets as he took the opening kickoff 100 yards up the middle for a touchdown and a 6-0 lead with only 11 seconds gone.

After Bean's touchdown, OMA couldn't get their attack rolling and were forced to punt to the Lions. MSC needed only seven plays to tally as fullback John Mack streaked 63 yards to paydirt, giving the Lions a 12-0 bulge as the extra point was missed.

The Cadets couldn't move the ball on the ground against Missouri Southern's massive defensive line, so they quickly started an aerial attack. It paid off as OMA clicked on a 66-yard touchdown pass from Johnny Sage to Roger Thompson.

A few plays later Mike Hutchison intercepted an errant OMA pass and ran it back to the Jop-

A Message to Quarterbacks...

Skip Drouin

Suppose for an instant that you are playing quarterback for a football team that is facing the MSC Lions and that you are fading back to pass. Suddenly there is a crash and the lineman whom you were depending on to protect you is lying on the ground and there is a 6-foot 3-inch, 250-pound monster reaching to grab you.

It gives you the shakes, doesn't it? Well, several quarterbacks have had that feeling this season. It has resulted in hurried passes, frightful cowering, and grounding the football. It is one of the reasons that the Lions have a perfect record in football competition this year.

Oh, yes, we should identify the monster that scared the quarterback so. Only he really is not a monster; he just acts like one when he is playing football. His name is Skip Drouin and he is really a nice guy. Everybody likes him (With the exception of opposing quarterbacks and halfbacks and fullbacks and linemen and coaches).

Skip has been scaring people on the other side of a line of scrimmage since his high school days. He had three football letters from Gabriel High School in Lansing, Michigan, and was named most valuable player in the city, all conference, and all state, all for his ability to put quaking fear in the hearts of quarterbacks.

One other thing also. He played a pretty fair game of basketball, gaining two letters in that sport. By the way, he also won another letter in high school for the ability to run 100 yards in 10.6 seconds and put the shot further than anyone else on the track squad.

His enemies (the quarterbacks) had a brief respite while Skip was a junior in high school. He had to sit out nine weeks in the hospital after a gasoline can, (probably hexed by an enemy coach) blew up while Skip was carrying it. He still bears the mark of the burns on his arms.

But none of the hexes, threats, and hard hitting he has been submitted to has bothered the quarterback-hater. He goes right ahead with his plans to finish his education at the University of Missouri and then become a teacher and a coach.

But before he tells his young charges how to play the game, he has a few more quarterbacks to decapitate.

One item might be of interest to all of you Drouin hating quarterbacks in the reading audience. Even if one of your hexes affects Skip adversely, you still have not got a chance to beat the Lions. You see, Skip has some friends, some big mean friends who hate quarterbacks, too. Their names are Hank Urbanowicz, Curt Jones, and Dick Kruse. In fact, they might even hate quarterbacks more than Skip does. So dream your dreams of horror, quarterbacks. They are sure to come true if you play the Lions.

MSC Pulverizes Haskell, 73-6, With 632-Yard Ground Attack

Missouri Southern College Lions rolled up a fantastic 632 yards rushing against their opponents' 38 yards on the ground to wrench their third straight football conference triumph, 73-6, from Haskell Indian Institute at Lawrence, Kansas, October 15.

The Interstate Conference clash opened with an 88-yard kick-off return by Lion halfback Don Bean to spark the scoring barrage.

From that point on the game was so dominated by MSC that at halftime, with the score 41-6, Coach Ron Toman ordered his first stringers to the showers. The Lion regulars watched from the grandstands as the reserves pounded home 32 more points in the second stanza.

Reserve halfback Wayne Sutton, a 180-pound freshman from St. Charles, led the crushing ground onslaught with 149 yards in six carries, a 24.3 yards per-carry average, and accounted for 18 MSC points. The third tally was an 86-yard jaunt in the fourth period.

Haskell made their six points late in the second period when quarterback Wilson Powell connected with end Clayton Old Elk on a 24-yard touchdown pass play. Wilson completed six of his 20 pass attempts for 70 yards while MSC helmets completed three of six pass attempts for 40 yards.

The Tigers overcame more than 200 yards in penalties against them in gaining the victory while Haskell was penalized 12 more yards than they gained on the ground.

Other MSC scoring plays in the first half included a five-yard run by Jay Barnhardt, a 20-yard pass from John Fretwell to end Clem Sanders, a 10-yard scamper by Larry Mitchell, a 10-yard return on a blocked Haskell punt by Larry Mitchell, and a five-yard run by Sutton.

In the second half, MSC scoring attacks included a three-yard plunge by Sutton, an 11-yard run by Mitchell, a 12-yard jaunt by Joe Witherspoon and another 12-yard run by Bobby Harris.

Rick Keys booted six extra points in the effort.

Long Kickoff Returns Stun Lion Opponents

Some brilliant kickoff returns have helped the Missouri Southern Lions to an unblemished record and a national ranking.

Three times this season, MSC halfbacks have stunned the opposition by returning the opening kickoff for a touchdown to give Joplin an early lead.

In the second game of the season, Jim Fountain's 90-yard return of the opening kickoff proved very beneficial in Southern's 20-7 win over Independence.

Against Oklahoma Military Academy Donald Bean returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a much-needed six points.

Fort Scott Will Face Lions at Home-coming

Ron Toman's Missouri Southern College Lions will attempt to move one step nearer a perfect season tomorrow night at Junge Stadium when they tangle with the Fort Scott, Kansas Junior College team at MSC's home-coming.

The Lions, fifth ranked nationally, are fresh from victories over Haskell Indian Institute and Wentworth Military academy. Ft. Scott is third ranked nationally.

The home-coming queen will be crowned during halftime ceremonies at the game, which starts at 7:30 p.m.
